Proposed Session "Level": *

Foundational—For those new to the higher education field, and/or to the particular area of practice or topic of a session. Foundational-level sessions help participants gain and build an understanding of new or less familiar topics.

Applied—For those with a robust understanding of a particular topic ready to gain additional knowledge to be put to practical use. Many participants in applied-level sessions have been in the higher education field for 5+ years.

Strategic—For those at a more senior level in higher education. Strategic-level sessions are for those required to do strategic visioning, set goals, and create strategies to meet those goals, and many participants have been in the higher education field for 10+ years.

IMPORTANT: Presenters are responsible for registering in advance for the conference, paying the registration fee, and securing and paying for travel and lodging.

Please note: Concurrent session presenters are expected to register and pay the early member registration fee. Concurrent session presenters are expected to be current members of UPCEA, either institutional, corporate, or affiliate. Corporate members are expected to propose sessions in conjunction with an institutional or affiliate member. Information about UPCEA membership can be found at upcea.edu/membership. Presenters are expected to sign a speaker agreement form, permitting UPCEA to record the session and disseminate the presentation to others.

I agree to submit to UPCEA's terms and conditions.
